

Save Money on Your Daily Commute

Whether you ride public transit, pay for parking, or use a combination of both, Driven125's Commuter Benefits program helps you save money by paying eligible commuting expenses with pre-tax dollars.

Why Use Commuter Benefits?

- Save money by paying eligible transit and parking expenses with pre-tax dollars.
- Reduce your taxable income while lowering your commuting costs.
- Access your commuter benefits through one convenient platform and mobile app.
- Use your commuter benefits with eligible transit systems and parking providers in your area.

How to Use Your Benefits

- 1 Enroll in your employer's commuter benefits program.
- 2 Elect the amount you'd like to contribute from your paycheck.
- 3 Access your commuter benefits through your account and benefits debit card.
- 4 Use your commuter benefits to pay for eligible transit and parking expenses.

Parking (Applies to All Cities)

Your commuter benefits can be used with SpotHero (or another eligible parking app) and at participating parking garages, lots, and parking facilities where commuter benefits are accepted.

Order Transit Products Through the Driven125 Consumer Portal

If you commute in one of the cities below, you can place your transit order directly through the Driven125 Consumer Portal. During the ordering process, select your transit authority and your commuter funds will be loaded directly to your transit authority card or account, making it easy to pay for your commute.

CITY	TRANSIT CARD / ACCOUNT
Atlanta	Breeze Card
Chicago	Ventra Account
San Francisco	Clipper Card
Washington, D.C.	SmarTrip Card

City-Specific Transit Information

Eligible transit systems and how to access your benefits, by city.

Atlanta

Use your commuter benefits to purchase a Breeze Card, Breeze Ticket, or CobbLinc Ticket. Eligible transit includes MARTA buses and rail service.

Boston

Use your benefits debit card with the Monthly LinkPass Auto-Pay Program or purchase CharlieCards, CharlieTickets, and mobile tickets. Eligible transit includes MBTA buses, the T, commuter rail, ferries, Amtrak, and other participating transit providers.

Chicago

Load your commuter funds directly to your Ventra Account through the Driven125 Consumer Portal. Eligible transit includes CTA buses and trains, Pace, Metra Rail, Amtrak, and other participating transit providers. You can also use an autoload program or purchase fares online or at a ticket vending machine.

Los Angeles

Use your benefits debit card to purchase a TAP Card, paper passes, and mobile tickets for eligible bus, rail, and vanpool services.

Miami

Use your benefits debit card to purchase an EASY Card, paper passes, and mobile tickets for eligible transit services.

New York City

Add your Driven125 Benefits Debit Card to your mobile wallet for OMNY tap-and-go payments. Also usable with the MTA eTix app, Mail&Ride account, or SmartLink Card. Eligible transit includes MTA subways and buses, LIRR, Metro-North Railroad, PATH, Amtrak, NJ Transit, and other participating transit providers.

Philadelphia

Use your benefits debit card to purchase a SEPTA Key Card, PATCO FREEDOM Card, paper passes, and other eligible transit fares.

San Francisco

Load your commuter funds directly to your Clipper Card through the Driven125 Consumer Portal. Eligible transit includes BART, Muni, San Francisco Bay Ferry, shuttles, vanpools, and other participating transit providers. You can also purchase fares online or use an autoload program.

Seattle

Use your benefits debit card to purchase an ORCA Card, paper passes, and mobile tickets for eligible transit services.

Washington, D.C.

Load your commuter funds directly to your SmarTrip Card through the Driven125 Consumer Portal. Eligible transit includes Metro trains, Metrobus, MARC, VRE, Amtrak, and other participating transit providers.

Learn More

Visit driven125.com to learn more about Commuter Benefits.